

“Romeo’s Tune”

GWR – 161

Called by: Brian Freed

Opener:

Circle Left

Meet in the middle of day, let hear you say everything’s okay. Boys star right and go one time for me

Meet me in the middle of the night, swing and promenade and say alright (let me hear you say everything’s)

Let me smell the moon in your perfume.

Figures:

Heads (Sides) you promenade half way, pass the ocean and extend I say

Swing through, boys run and Ferris wheel.

Centers pass through, star through square through and count to three

Swing your corner and promenade for me

Let me smell the moon in your perfume. *

Break/Closer:

Circle left

Oh, Gods and years will rise and fall and there’s always something more

Boys star right and go one time

While further down behind the, swing and promenade (masquerade the tears are there)

I don’t ask for all that much, I just want someone who cares.

ADDITIONAL LYRICS* Let me see you smiling back at me.

 It's king and queen and we must go down now beyond the chandelier

 Shreds of news and afterthoughts and swing and promenade (complicated scenes)

We'll huddle down behind the light and fade like magazines.
